THE WAITER'S ACADEMY

Types of Service in Restaurants

FRENCH, RUSSIAN, AMERICAN

FRENCH

THE FRENCH SERVICE IS THE MOST EXPENSIVE AND LABOR-INTENSIVE SERVICE IN THE HOSPITALITY INDUSTRY

The Waiter's Academy

French Service

This service requires large number of highly skilled and experienced professionals who can perform:

- carving
- filleting
- slicing
- garnishing

and many other procedures in front of the guests with style and finesse.

French Service

The French Service
now days is used only in the most expensive, lavish restaurants and the guests are paying very high price for their experience

HOW IT IS DONE

The partially cooked food arrives from the kitchen usually carried on large platters and is placed on a gueridon

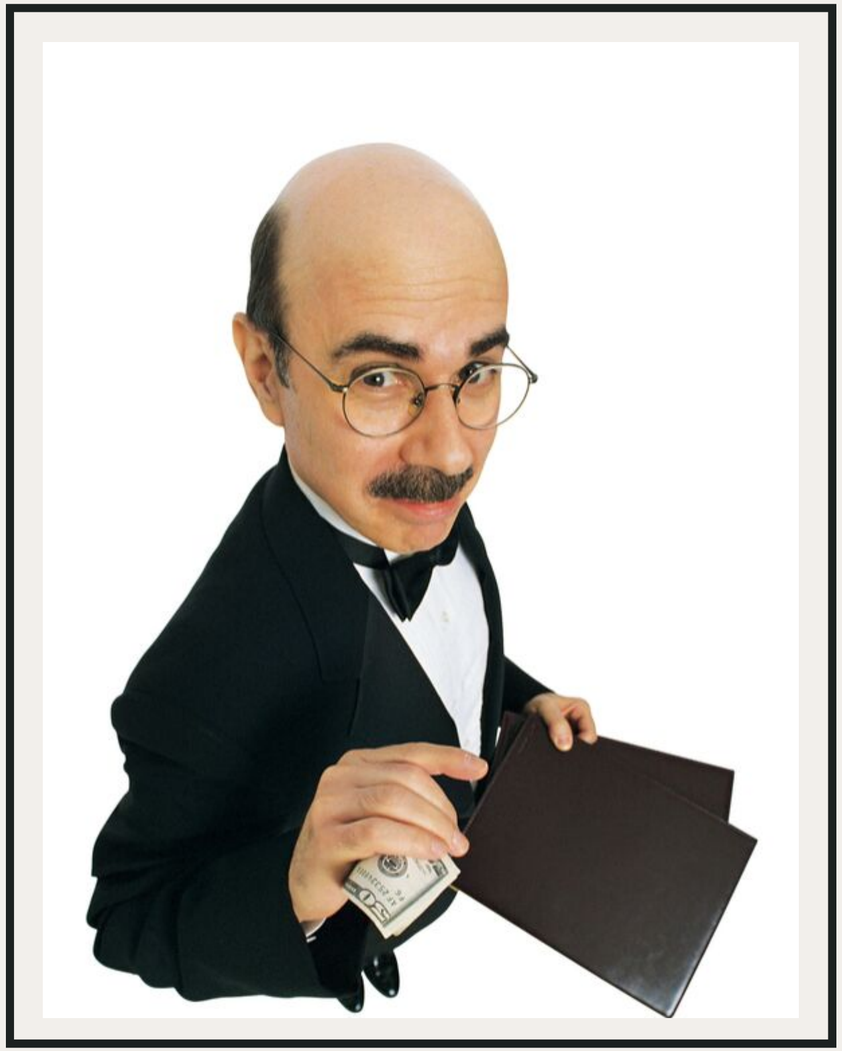
The final preparation is completed in front of the guests by the waiters

The food is arranged on heated plates and served to the guests on the table one by one

The French Service is time consuming service, however the guests receive the highest level of service and special attention.
Not everything is prepared and served in front of the guests in French Service!
Mostly this is done for the main course or entree course

Salads and small apetizers are either served from a platter directly into the preset plate in front of the guests or the platters are placed in the middle of the table and the guests help themselves!

Service Procedures and duties:



Chef de Rang

- Greets and sits the guests
- Takes the orders
- Prepares the meals in front of the guests: Deboning and Carving, Filleting, Flambeing, Tossing and Mixing, Sauces preparations
- Serves wine (in absence of sommelier) and beverages
- Controls the smooth running of the service throughout the whole evening
- Presents the check and takes care of the bill

Service Procedures and duties:

Comis de Rang

- Taking the order from the Chef de Rang to the Kitchen
- Preparing the additional silverware (if any is necessary)
- Bringing the Gueridons and the food platters to the dining room
- Serves the dishes as they are prepared from the Chef de Rang
- Clearing the table and assisting through the evening

RUSSIAN

CREATED BY THE RUSSIAN TZAR IN ORDER TO IMPRESS HIS GUESTS THE RUSSIAN SERVICE IS DISTINCT WITH LAVISH SETTINGS, GOLD PLATES AND CUTLERY, STYLE AND GREAT ATTENTION TO THE GUESTS!

RUSSIAN SERVICE

IT WAS BASED ON THE FORMAL FRENCH SERVICE AND BOTH ARE VERY SIMILAR TO EACH OTHER WITH SOME KEY DIFFERENCES!

NOWDAYS THE RUSSIAN SERVICE IS GREATLY MODDIFIED AND USED IN THE BEST INTERNATIONAL RESTAURANTS AND HOTELS IN BANQUET OPERATIONS OR ON CRUISE LINES WHERE ALL THE GUESTS ARE SERVED THE SAME SELCTION ON FOODS!

- The menu is announced in advance and the tables are set accordingly!
- The meals arrive on silver platters from the kitchen properly arranged with all the necessary meat and side dishes to serve the whole table (usually 8 or 10 people)
- The highly skilled waiter presents the platter from the left side of the guests and serves directly into the guest's plate with the right hand using fork and spoon!
- It is possible that the waiters work in pairs and the head waiter serves the meat with one side dish as the second waiter follows the Chef de Rang with the second side dish and the sauce!

Serving Procedures:

- On a cue from the 'Restaurant Manager the waiters place the hot or cold plates in front of the guests (depends on the meal served) and bring the prearranged platters with food from the kitchen to the tables!
- The platters are introduced to the guests from the left side and a complete portion is served on the guest's plate with the right hand using fork and spoon! The server should be able to carry and serve the whole table with one platter!
- After completing the table the server returns the empty platter back in the kitchen and takes the next full platter for the next table!
- The plates are cleared once all the guests on the table are done eating!
- This circle is repeated till the last meal is served and cleared!

AMERICAN

THE MOST COMMON SERVICE TODAY IN A LA CARTE RESTAURANT IS THE AMERICAN SERVICE!
HERE THE FOOD IS PREPARED AND PLATED IN THE KITCHEN AND THE WAITERS ARE BRINGING IT TO THE TABLE AND SERVE IT TO THE GUEST!

AMERICAN SERICE

THE SERVING OF THE FOOD DIFFERS IN USA AND EUROPE, AS IN USA THE PLATES ARE SERVED FROM THE LEFT SIDE OF THE GUEST WITH LEFT HAND AND IN EUROPE AND MOST OF THE WORLD THE PLATES ARE SERVED FROM THE RIGHT SIDE OF THE GUEST WITH THE RIGHT HAND! THIS IS THE ONLY DIFFERENCE BETWEEN USA AND THE REST OF THE WORLD IN AMERICAN SERVICE!

SERVING PROCEDURES:

- A head waiter greats the guests and takes the food and drinks orders
- Back up waiter prepares the proper silverware for every guest according to the guest's order and serves the drinks prepared on the bar
- The head waiter presents and serves the wine bottle (if the restaurant has no sommelier or he/she is busy)
- The first meal is served as soon as the kitchen has plated it
- The plates are cleared once all the guests on the table are done with their meal
- Second dish is called and served as soon as the kitchen prepares it
- This is repeated until all the meals the guests have ordered are served and cleared
